

Please do not weaken the Indiana Telephone Privacy Law by imposing the established business relationship exemption on it. Since I am the individual paying for the privilege of having a telephone, I should be able to restrict what calls I want to receive.